

HOME SCHOOL AGREEMENT

Our Home School Agreement sets out our expectations for both children and parents. We expect all parents of children who attend Grayswood CE (Aided) Primary School to support our Christian distinctiveness and sign this agreement so that together we are able to create and sustain a solid and successful partnership which supports all of our families and enables all of our children to achieve their full potential in a happy, caring Church of England School.

The staff at Grayswood CE Primary School will:

- Promote the safeguarding of all children and child protection procedures
- Provide a safe and secure environment for all children
- Establish and develop the foundations for life-long learning
- Promote high expectations so that all children can reach their full potential
- Provide a broad, balanced and enriched, creative curriculum
- Enable all children to do their best by setting them appropriate, challenging targets
- Encourage all children to take pride in their achievements
- Encourage all children to show a caring attitude towards each other
- Support all children so that they feel able to talk about anything that is worrying them
- Welcome parents into school and keep them well informed about our school
- Keep parents informed about their child's progress and any additional intervention they may receive
- Suggest ways that parents can support their child's learning
- Ensure that parents know procedures for expressing any concerns
